THE GOSPEL

“The Gospel is the message that we are more evil than we ever dared imagined, and at the very same time we are more loved and accepted in Christ than we ever dared hope.”

Tim Keller
